

GLENDALÉ B. P. O. ELKS' FLOAT WINS FIRST PRIZE

ELKS' FLORAL PARADE THIS MORNING VIEWED BY CROWD

Large Number of Bands, Representing All Quarters of Country—Spectators Lined Streets Hours Ahead of Starting Time—Floats Win Applause

Under the blue sky of a perfect day hundreds of floats in a brilliant blaze of colorful glory took up the line of procession as part of the Elks' gorgeous floral pageant this morning and entranced 200,000 spectators with one of the most beautiful and striking pageants Los Angeles has ever been privileged to witness.

At ten o'clock the floral parade was under way passing through the main business streets of the center of the city lined with a solid mass of people, who had stood for an hour and more in anticipation. Relieving the period of delay prior to the start of the pageant the massed band parade, which swung into line at First and Broadway at 9:30, marched down Broadway and crossed to Hope and Eighth where they joined the main procession.

There were more than forty bands assembled which represented Elks' lodges from the four quarters of the country. Not least among the devotees of Orepheus were the two Glendale bands, the first representing the local lodge and directed by E. R. Steele and the other city band under the leadership of H. G. Martin. Philadelphia had won the band contest at Exposition Park earlier in the week, but the knowing ones smiles when the Glendale "Bill" musicians passed by. Hundreds of local people from early morning began an exodus from the city in order to secure good standing room in Los Angeles to witness the parade.

The floral procession was divided into eight divisions, which included the various floats entered by local lodges and visiting delegates, an assemblage of commercial floats, entries from motion pictures studios, firemen's floats, floats entered by fraternal organizations and a variety of individual entries. Keen rivalry was evinced at every stage of the procession on the part of those who rode on the floats.

Spectators on the sidewalks shouted themselves hoarse upon the appearance of any particularly prominent float and delegations from the various Elks' lodges and those who had entered special floats cheered roundly when their favorite appeared in the line of march. An attempt to pick out the best float would have been as difficult as rounding up the proverbial needle that was lost in a haystack.

Brilliant, colorful and artistic in every respect the electrical parade last night presented to thousands of onlookers one of the most gorgeous spectacles ever witnessed on the streets of Los Angeles. Artistry in the pageant ranged from the Robert Brunton poppies and pretty girls to the Selig float which presented a tropical scene as a fitting background for Leo, the African lion, who reposed in a cage under swaying palms and blinked in amazement at it all. The Selig float was drawn by a combination of camels, ponies and elephant.

A score or more other floats in the procession were equally as attractive as these, but the crowd on the sidewalks came away dissatisfied, their chief protest being that the parade was of too brief duration.

"Pasadena Day" is down on the official Elks' program for this afternoon and citizens and "Bills" from the Crown City will endeavor to give visiting delegates the time of their lives. Free lunches will be served at the Elks' lodge on Colorado boulevard, automobile trips about the city will be in order and the grand lodge officers will be taken on aeroplane rides over the San Gabriel valley.

At the Hotel Vista Del Arroyo, the Pasadena Elks will stage a big entertainment, for the pleasure of their visitors, that will include Spanish dancing, Hawaiian music, singing and dancing and a special program of stunts. Motion pictures will be taken at the same time so that eastern Elks may learn the intricacies of the movie art.

Tonight at the Ambassador, the official Elks' ball, will be held. Hundreds are expected to attend, but provision has been made for those who do not care to trip the light fantastic by way of an invitation to Elks and their friends to attend the Pilgrimage Play.

PATRIOTISM AS TYPIFIED BY THE FLAG KEYNOTE OF BEAUTIFUL FLOAT

Today was the last of the great Convention of the Grand Lodge, B. P. O. E., and Los Angeles and the whole southland will reluctantly say goodbye to these visitors it has been such a pleasure to entertain.

Its program has been a banquet of treats in the way of spectacles which climaxed this morning in a beautiful floral parade which took the visiting delegates by storm. It was worthy the enthusiastic plaudits it received.

Glendale's interest naturally centered in the entry made by its own Elks' Lodge B. P. O. E. 1289, and none of those who saw it in the flush of early morning, before it left for the assembling point at Hope and Eighth streets, Los Angeles, had a doubt of its receiving first prize. Glendale has had many lovely floats to her credit, but this one excelled them all. It was fitting that such should be the case for it was a labor of love.

The design and the direction of its execution were the work of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Chobe, whose artistic talent have won much credit for our city in the past. In this last effort for the Elks' Lodge of which Mr. Chobe is a member, they surpassed themselves. It was a herculean task but workers rallied to their assistance, a considerable number working all night that it might be ready for its journey by 6 o'clock this morning. Besides the float itself there were floral badges of ferns and asters to be made for the members of the band who marched ahead of the float, and similar badges for the eight little girls who led the float as its apparent motive power, and the men of the party were not too tired to have considerable sport about their "needlework" in this connection. But for these voluntary assistants of Mr. and Mrs. Chobe there would have been no float. The group who worked all night with Mr. and Mrs. Chobe, included Past Exalted Ruler John Farnet and Mrs. Farnet, Esteemed Leading Knight Arthur Dibern and Mrs. Dibern, Murray Durham, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Appel, Morris Caruthers, George Byrd, Billy Viohl (who did the lettering), Mr. and Mrs. Ed Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wimmer, and Miss Dorothy Chobe.

Another group which worked until the wee sma' hours included Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fortunato, (Mrs. Fortunato preparing a midnight luncheon for the workers), Bert Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pixley, A. J. Dallman, Richard Montagne, Howard and Louise Wimmer, Gus Thingan, Mr. and Mrs. John MacGregor, S. H. Rich and Mrs. Betty Rich, Mrs. Stella Spear, G. M. Corrigan, Mrs. Mabel Rudy, Mrs. Grace Chobe, Francis Gilman, Julius Moniot, Mrs. F. G. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Acton, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Orff and Miss Corinne Orff, Mrs. Bert Woodard and some others who came after returning from viewing the electric parade in Los Angeles whose names were not secured.

How shall one describe this float intended to portray the patriotism of the order and the virtues for which it stands—charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity? It began with a most beautiful floral flag suspended from a golden pole high above all, the lively red and white stripes of red and white carnations descending in graceful folds to the bed of the float, covering it and drooping over the sides; the blue field of corn flowers studded with stars of white carnations fell in graceful folds at the upper left hand and draped a full antlered elk springing from a thicket of spruce. On the rear was the familiar dial, worked out in white and purple asters, the hands of the clock pointing to the hour of eleven and below was the elk's head.

In the foreground was the altar in the typical colors, red white and blue, signifying charity, justice, brotherly love, the Bible indicated, and above it the star of fidelity.

Purple asters draped the sides of the float on which were worked out in white carnations the legend "Glendale, B. P. O. E. 1289."

Dressed in fluffy skirts of white tulle adorned with white scarfs decorated with ferns and purple asters eight little girls drew the float with white ribbons and carried umbrella canopies of flowers. These maids ranging in age from six to eight years were led by Barbara Gilman, of 1508 South Central, who was the banner bearer. Her associates were Catherine Spear of 414 Palmer avenue, Katharine Ferry of 614 East Acacia, Carol May Evans of 124 South Mariposa, Jean Hinchcliff of 440 Milford street, Rhodora McKee of 130 West Chestnut, Marie Acton of 323 Arden avenue and

Who Cut the Rope?

The old adage "there's many a slip, etc.," was effectively demonstrated yesterday in the B. P. O. E. parade in Los Angeles just as the Glendale contingent came abreast of the reviewing stand at the City Hall. Curly Stecker who was directing the destinies of the mammoth elephant chose this place as the appropriate spot to put the beast through his best paces and accordingly gave the necessary command to bring his charge to its knees in a profound bow. The bow was accomplished all right, but at the critical moment the howdah broke loose from its moorings and the spectators were treated to the spectacle of the Glendale Lodge officers being shot off the elephant's back in various and sundry directions and landing in a very undignified manner in the middle of Broadway.

This was speedily repaired however and the parade continued on its joyous way, the only damage being done was the breaking of Exalted Ruler Bud Priest's glasses, but as Bud remarked "What can you expect of an elephant?"

Ruth Muhleman, daughter of Frank Muhleman of Pierce avenue, Pacoima. Four men in uniform attending the float signified that although peace for the flag is the desire of the Elks, they are ready to defend it at need.

A sturdy horse known as "Jim" furnished the motive power and was hidden from view in the interior of the float. Bill Sunkes acted as his driver and Frank Kiefer was up in front to guide the big car with just a small peep hole through the flowers to enable him to determine where he was "at". Also riding within the float was Mrs. Grace Chobe to act as chaperone and caretaker of the little girls whenever the float came to rest. Everywhere along the line of march the beautiful chariot received the enthusiastic plaudits of the crowd and it must have been sweet music to Mr. Chobe and the Glendalians who witnessed its triumphant progress, especially those who had helped to create the lovely vision.

When asked for statistics Mr. Chobe stated that the float was 28 feet long and 11 wide, and 14 1/2 feet high. The flag, was 30 feet long by 10 wide and 25,000 red and white carnations were used in its manufacture. The golden ball on the end of the flagpole was made of yellow centauraea, while coreopsis being employed for the star of fidelity that centered the pole. In all about 40,000 blossoms were used to decorate the car besides ferns, smilax, brakes etc.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT IN SOUTH GLENDALÉ

The Magnolia Tennis club, will hold their finals at the Magnolia playground on San Fernando road next Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at which time the prizes for the winners of the events will be awarded.

This organization, though of recent origin, has rapidly grown in popularity and membership, and has developed a number of tennis players who have all the earmarks of becoming contenders for high honors.

WATCH STEP, BOYS, OR COP'LL GET YOU

Boys who are trying King David's stunt with a slingshot had better watch out or the Glendale cops'll get 'em. City hall records show that M. Dutcher has entered a complaint of the breaking of his windshield by missiles thrown by boys.

COUNCIL ADOPTS SEWAGE PLANS FOR BUSINESS CENTER

City Attorney Instructed to Prepare Necessary Resolution
Under Vrooman Act—Estimated Cost $5.60 Per Foot or $280 Per 50-Foot Lot Frontage

Members of the City Council were anxious to get away early last night and so convened at 7:45 instead of 8 o'clock, with Mayor Robinson in the chair and all members present.

The first and chief item of business was a communication by the city manager relative to plans and specifications as finally checked and approved by city engineer for the proposed sewer units in the business district, and the presentation to the Council by J. A. Rhoades, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, of a petition signed by property owners in the district together with statements from other property owners agreeing not to protest the improvement, the same representing more than 51 per cent of the district frontage.

Mr. Rhoades made a very brief speech in presenting the petition in which he urged the strong necessity for immediate action to relieve congestion in that district, saying it would be cheaper to provide sewers than more graveyards. Acting on the recommendations of the city manager the Council then adopted the plans and specifications and instructed the city attorney to prepare a resolution under the Vrooman act in accordance therewith.

The city manager's communication stated: "The estimate of cost has been slightly increased on account of these extensions making a total estimated cost of $36,487. The approximate frontage in the assessment district is 6520 feet. The assessment per front foot on the basis of the above estimate would be $5.60 or $280.00 per fifty foot lot.

There are three easements yet to be obtained or rights of way over property not yet dedicated for public use. These have been prepared and are now in the hands of parties whose signatures thereto are required. We have been promised these easements the first part of next week.

The resolution of intention has been prepared by city engineer and is in the hands of city attorney for approval.

The specifications for sewer pipe have been left open pending the receipt of bids on vitrified and concrete pipe. These bids will be in hand early next week in time to determine which to specify in resolution of intention. It is our understanding that either concrete or vitrified pipe is acceptable for this work. The only question is as to which may be furnished at the lowest price."

VAN NUYS LODGE TO BE WELCOMED

The Pythian Castle Hall at the corner of Park avenue and Brand boulevard was the scene of unusual activity at its last meeting.

Many visitors from near and far were present and participated in the double ceremonial, conferring the Page and Esquire ranks upon a fine class of future knights.

The exemplification of the degrees brought out many interesting features sufficient to insure a large attendance next Tuesday, when the Knight rank will be conferred upon a large class of Esquires.

These candidates for Pythian Knighthood are the results of the membership drive now being conducted by Glendale Lodge, which is meeting with much success.

The present initiation fee will be doubled at the close of this drive, which accounts for the number of new members now being added to the lodge.

Last Sunday the Glendale and Van Nuys lodges had an outing in Griffith park, which was well attended. The ball game in which the Pythian Sisters vied with their big brothers in thrilling runs (or was it strikeouts?), was a feature of the day's pleasure. As usual, the umpire had a strenuous time and is now being charged with accepting a bribe. The Ethiopian delegate was much in evidence.

All local K. P's will be on hand next Tuesday evening to welcome the Van Nuys lodge, and incidentally, to see the new Glendale K. of P. orchestra in its first appearance. "Nuf sed" and a big hot lunch.

NEW SPORT THAT AFFORDS THRILLS

"Plucking the ostrich" is a new sport that will afford some real thrills to Elks who choose to visit the Weston ostrich farm this afternoon at the invitation of Manager H. J. Vatcher, Jr., who guarantees a battle royal unequalled even during Vernon's palmy days.

According to Mr. Vatcher ostriches have a peculiar antipathy to having their posterior adornments removed and will kick like bronchos to save their tail feathers. Four stalwart keepers and an equal number of ostriches are scheduled to go to the mat this afternoon. Among the birds is Mrs. William Jennings Bryan from which the attendants will attempt to pluck $175 worth of bird foliage.

MONTE VISTA HOME OPENING NEXT SATURDAY

Mrs. Ralph Meeker and her associates on the Glendale Committee for the Monte Vista Home, particularly charged with the duty of furnishing the kitchen department of the Home, have already announced that Saturday and Sunday, July 16 and 17, would be reception days, when the institution would be thrown open to public inspection, and Glendalians have been invited to visit it. It can be reached by means of the Sunland stage, and owners of automobiles can find it without difficulty by driving north on Glendale avenue and keeping to the left. It is directly opposite the State Park, formerly the Monte Vista Park.

This reception is to be a pound party and every visitor is requested to bring a pound of something with which to store the pantry of the Home.

A short time ago Chapter A. H. of the P. E. O., which undertook to furnish one of the bedrooms, completed its work and had a picnic there and gala day when the furniture was installed, the curtains the chapter had made were hung, the rugs laid, and everything made ready for the use and comfort of the occupants to come.

Persons unable to visit the institution this week who nevertheless wish to contribute their pounds, can leave them with Mrs. Charles Turk, Mrs. R. W. Meeker, or Mrs. Ella Richardson, who will see that the contributions reach their proper destination.

A stone wall is now being laid around the property and the playground is being put in order, so everything will be in shipshape array when visitors make their appearance.

PLAN LONG AUTO AND CAMPING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Browne who recently took possession of their attractive new home at 409 Glendale avenue, are getting all the enjoyment possible out of their automobile. They spent the Fourth of July holidays at Santa Barbara and are now planning a longer auto and camping trip in company with friends that will take them to points in Washington and to Pullman, Oregon. It will be a leisurely journey that will enable them to do as much sight-seeing on the way as possible. Mr. Browne is closing up his building contracts and not taking any new ones so they can be free to start about the first of August.

SAYS CITY REQUIRES NEW ORDINANCES UNDER PRESENT CHARTER

That the city may be in a position to take advantage of the provisions of the city charter, new ordinances will be required, as pointed out by City Manager Watson in the following communication submitted to the city council last night:

"Glendale, July 14, 1921.
"Honorable City Council, City of Glendale, Calif.

"Gentlemen:—In regard to the handling of deposits and procedure for doing public work, as provided for by charter;

"In order to take advantage of the provisions of the charter relating to the handling of funds and procedure for doing public work, it is our understanding that it will be necessary for your council to adopt several ordinances.

"Section, 18, article 11, provides for a special deposit fund and that disbursement therefrom shall be as provided by ordinance. As I understand it, provision should be made by ordinance before the city treasurer will have authority to make refunds from such special deposit fund.

"One of the most valuable provisions in the charter is set forth in section 10 of article 6, which reads as follows:

"Power to Do Public Work Direct.—The council shall have power to provide by ordinance a complete procedure whereby the city may bid on all public work done under the provisions of any local improvement ordinance or resolution. Said ordinance shall pro-

IN DESPONDENCY FIT GUY THOMAS SLASHES HIS WRIST

Glendale has an example of the heart-breaking effects of official red tape and delay on the part of the government in connection with disabled ex-service men. The victim in this case is Guy Thomas, son of Lee Thomas, who as a member of the 30th Engineers (afterwards changed to the 1st Gas regiment), was gassed in the Argonne offensive. Of his fellow soldiers, 35 were carried to the rear for first aid and four went back to the ranks. Guy was one of the four and he stayed in the ranks until the close of the war, for which he had volunteered, being above draft age.

His father says that the 22 days and nights he spent in the mud and water at Brest, France, was probably the cause of his eventual breakdown, for after being mustered out, his nerves began to fail and tuberculosis of the lungs set in. For the past two years, examinations by government physicians have been made from time to time, and reports of total disability issued, though he has been permitted to remain in his father's office, where he would not be under restraint. An effort has been made to secure an increase of his pay from $20 a month, but no action has been secured.

During the past week some blood has been discharging from his lungs, and this depressing fact, together with the knowledge that for the past two years he has been a heavy charge upon his father, coupled with the government's tardiness, brought on a fit of despondency yesterday afternoon, in which he took a razor and slashed his left wrist. He then called his father from the other room and bade him goodbye, but the father tied the wrist and summoned Dr. Eckles by telephone immediately, and the boy is now in a way to recover from the wound.

Lee Thomas, who gave the above account of his boy's sad condition, is very bitter over the seeming ingratitude exhibited by the government toward these boys who sacrificed their all for their country.

COMFORT AND CULTURE IN THE HOME.

Music is the very essence of harmony—and in turn, harmony is essential to successful home and business life. The last century has produced no invention that has brought more comfort and pleasure into the home than the Ampico. The Barnes-Shuck Music company, of 211 North Brand boulevard, is the Glendale home of the Ampico in the Knabe and Haines Brothers' pianos. The Ampico, a marvelous reproducing instrument, by means of its pneumatic controls plays the selections with the exact accents of the artist's interpretations. The enthusiastic Ampico owner is essentially a lover of home who appreciates and desires the best. He may enjoy the finest of rare operas or again he may prefer the simpler home ballads and popular songs of the day—but whatever his mood, the Ampico is always ready to satisfy.

The Ampico differs radically from the ordinary player piano. By just turning the automatic expression lever off, the Ampico will play the ordinary player rolls, and one may impart his or her own interpretation of the selection. One really has three instruments in one, a reproducing piano which exactly reproduces the interpretations of the world's greatest pianists; a player piano of the highest merit; and an exquisite silent piano of beautiful tone to be played by hand at will! And all in the Ampico—either the Knabe or Haines Brothers! The constant hearing of the world's greatest musicians, through the medium of the Ampico, must create a love for the finest music in the home. In what better environment could your child be reared, than with daily communion with such masters as Ornstein, Godowsky, Bauer, Victor Herbert, Fritz Kreisler, and the gentler melodies such as Gitz Rice's "Dear Old Pal of Mine"?

WHO FINDS HAPPINESS IN HIS HOME"

THE KEY TO HAPPINESS IN THE HOME

"Martha Malicia Goes Shopping"

The Barnes-Shuck Music company will be glad to demonstrate this marvelous instrument for you at any time, in their attractive show rooms at 211 North Brand boulevard.

A PRICELESS GIFT!

Why not send your friends an artistically colored picture of our Land of Sunshine? Better yet—snap a favorite view with your own kodak! Then take the film to the Photo Shop at 219 East Broadway and have a wonderful enlargement made—one that will even reproduce the very leaves of the trees! About the coloring? Well, that too, is simple, for you may have the enlargement colored in all its original beauty, and I'll promise you that it will be wonderfully done at the Photo Shop, too! Then select a dainty frame, right there, one that will harmonize with the colorings, and yet appeal directly to your friends. You see, the Photo Shop also specializes in rare frames to satisfy even the most fastidious. When all's said and done, for a small amount you have a priceless gift—direct from our own California!

MONEY IN YOUR POCKET

The family pocketbook is usually sadly depleted after the weekly round with the laundry! Washer Wilson, of 132 South Brand boulevard, however, has solved this serious household problem. Didn't you know that for less money than you are now paying out for laundry, you might be buying an electric machine from Washer Wilson's that will even do the work more satisfactorily—without tearing out buttons and wreaking general havoc with the clothes, as do so many laundries! I saw the Coffield Electric Washer demonstrated at Washer Wilson's yesterday, and it is positively the smoothest running machine that I have ever heard! Yes, and besides, there's a dandy copper tub, with a rust-proof lining, and a wringer, much wider than usual, and so very easy to swing (you see, it's both swinging and reversible!).

The clothes are washed beautifully clean by the motion of the water, and although small and compact, the Coffield is the largest capacity machine made! Also, the prices have dropped recently! Don't throw any more good money after bad—step into Washer Wilson's now and select your electric. Then, too, Washer Wilson is closing out his stock of 1900 Cataracts and it will be a good plan for you to look them over—for they're made by one of the old reliable companies and are thoroughly satisfactory!

A GOOD ROASTING!

The more you learn about coffee the better pleased you'll be that Mr. Booth, the Coffee King, decided to settle here in Glendale. For now, you are always sure of being able to secure the very best of coffee. Mr. Booth both roasts and blends his coffee himself—for then he is sure of giving the best. You know, roasting is one of the most precarious of processes, because the best coffee, poorly roasted, is poor coffee! If over-roasted, the snap and fragrance is gone! But when underdone, it tastes green and raw—and makes altogether a very poor cup. Ten seconds either way might spoil it! But, buy your coffee from Booth's at 318 East Broadway, and you'll always be sure that you are getting the best! Mr. Booth says that the proof of his coffee is not in the drinking, but in the number of satisfied customers who come again and again for "real" coffee.

AS OTHERS SEE US!

You will be judged by the first impression of your home! When a stranger enters, will he be greeted by an unsanitary and old-fashioned carpet? Or is his first impression that of a modern home with new hardwood floors, proving right there that its owners are also up-to-date in everything they do? The Glendale Hardwood Flooring company of 304 East Broadway will take up that old wooden floor and put down a good-looking, sanitary hardwood floor for a very reasonable cost.

YUM! YUM!

Cool and inviting, Buddie's Place at 212 1/2 South Brand boulevard is always inviting after the theater! But even more popular than Buddie's Place is—Buddie's Special!—Really, it makes my mouth water to even try and describe it! Imagine, if you can—a luscious, big canteloupe, scooped out to form a dainty bowl, which is filled with the most delicious chocolate and vanilla ice cream you have ever tasted! Ah, but that is not all! No—over that is poured crushed strawberries, then snowy marshmallow cream, and all topped with nuts and a cherry! Yum! Yum!

A hall should be formal enough to receive strangers in and hospitable enough to welcome friends. The woodwork should be light, and if possible the floor also. The floor coverings may be of a warmer tone, but not so deep as to absorb light.

In the small room where there are many scattered windows, curtain them with the same color as the walls and woodwork. English casement cloth may be well used in such an instance as it comes in the general tones of a wall color and necessitates only one set of hangings. When apartment windows are left with but little curtaining, so that one can see out, more sense of space is afforded.

Wallpaper may be freshened by thoroughly wiping down with a clean cloth and with dry bread around the squares where the pictures have been removed.

NO NEED FOR WORRY!

A spot right on the front of that new gown? Well, don't worry about it, for the Brand Cleaners of 217 South Brand boulevard clean even the daintiest fabrics and make them look just like new!

Now that real estate is selling at such low figures, it's folly to pay high rents, isn't it? Then why, when you can buy an adorable little bungalow of two, three or four rooms for only $500 down, pay an exorbitant rent? Vandenhoff of 205 North Brand boulevard has just the kind of bungalows you'd love, from $2000 up, and you can make such a small payment and pay the balance like rent—really less than rent.

Just between you and me, a man is always better-natured when he is smoking a good cigar, and best of all—Dad's. They are made right here in Glendale, you know, and sold at the cigar counter of the Glendale Pharmacy, 638 East Broadway. And, by the way, they have a new cigar counter at the Glendale Pharmacy. It's different than any other you've ever seen, so stop in soon and try one of Dad's cigars, "Glendale Zone."

Don't you feel ever so much cooler when you are surrounded with cool-looking furniture—perhaps read?—

do, and so I discovered that the Glendale Furniture company of 606-608 East Broadway have the most attractive furniture. Just gives one that cozy feeling of home. The Glendale Furniture store is right up to the minute in its stock of the newest designs in furniture. And, their prices are right, too!

Half the battle in home-making is an attractive kitchen. With new and attractive kitchen utensils, cooking takes on an added lure for the average woman. Neale & Gregg Hardware company of 107 North Brand, are offering a special for one week on Wear-Ever aluminum cooking utensils. There are big kettles—wonderfully roomy affairs that are so handy during the preserving season, for they're capable of stewing just oodles and oodles of delicious jam. Then there are other aluminum pots and pans of the popular Wear-Ever make. Oh, yes! The price—why, Neale & Gregg are offering 20 per cent off of their regular prices! But your opportunity to secure such utensils of the best materials that will give you a lifetime of unequalled service and always make cooking a pleasure, will be only for one week at this reasonable cost. Why not make your kitchen as attractive as the rest of your house, while the opportunity offers?

Another of Neale & Gregg's famous Saturday specials! Tomorrow they're offering lovely white bristle clothes and general utility brushes at a great saving—only 16 cents apiece for these brushes, that are ordinarily sold for 25 cents. Don't miss this opportunity to lay in a supply—they're so very handy for brushing vegetables and such things. You should keep at least two in your kitchen always for really, you've no idea how handy they are and how much they'll save. After all, it's the few steps that count, isn't it?

If the walls are to be re-papered, choose a cool, summer color, such as gray or soft tan. Striped papers are excellent for this use; narrow black stripes on a buff background makes a particularly charming and cool sidewall.

In a modern living-room, furnished in a mixed style, copper candlesticks with pottery bowls between, used to hold flowers, suit the no-period room.

PROFITEERING

People who regard profiteering as a pernicious modern invention have only to turn the pages of history to discover that in every great war there have been unscrupulous individuals ready to take advantage of the unsettled conditions to defraud their fellow citizens. During and after the Revolutionary War there were greedy traders who demanded an exorbitant price for the barest necessities. Our sturdy forefathers were not minded to submit tamely to such extortion. At Fort Pitt (now Pittsburgh) a public meeting was called by the officers of the Colonial army, and resolutions were adopted condemning the traders, "who are now known," the minutes state, "by the disgraceful epithet of 'speculators.'" A committee was appointed to secure information and fix a just price for various commodities. After investigation the committee reported that "at the present enormous prices, unless dire and absolute necessity compels, to buy shall be deemed as criminal as to sell, and should the traders refuse to sell at the regulated prices agreed on and fixed by this committee, resolved that said traders be immediately ordered to withdraw themselves and property from the post, being fully determined to have a reasonable trade or no trade, * * * it is the unanimous opinion of this committee that the specious designing speculator is a monster of a deeper dye, and more malignant nature, than the savages in the wilderness, whose mischiefs are partial, while those occasioned by the speculators have become universal."

The committee went to the root of the matter and prescribed the best remedy for any such evil—to refuse flatly to buy at unreasonable prices.

Dr. Alder says there are ten million feeble-minded people in the United States. Well, well; it isn't as bad as we thought.

It is rather disconcerting, but the nation that knows the least about hygiene is the one that contains the most people.

Senators Underwood and Lodge were lined up together in the demand for a Senate recess. Wonders never cease.

If it had happened today, the story would probably read, "And Nero attended a movie while Rome burned."

We wonder if Mr. Harding, viewing the Senate from afar, will agree that distance lends enchantment.

The Poles may be a little covetous and scrappy, but they are good sports. They haven't claimed that God is with them.

GRAVE AND GAY

Confession

W. J. Bryan's father once missed several large hams that had been hanging in his barn loft. He suspected that the thief did not live very many miles away, but he made no direct charge against anyone; in fact, he refrained from mentioning his loss to a single soul. A few days later his neighbor called.

"Say, judge," said the man, "heard you had some hams stole the other night."

"Yes," replied the judge, very confidentially, "but don't tell anyone; you and I are the only ones who know anything about it."

Irritation

Magistrate (severely)—"Horse-whipping is the only suitable punishment for you and your kind. The idea of a man of your size beating a poor, weak woman like that!"

Prisoner—"But, your honor, she keeps irritating and irritating me all the time."

Magistrate—"How does she irritate and irritate you?"

Prisoner—"Why, she keeps saying, 'Hit me! Beat me! Just hit me once and I'll have you hauled up before that bald-headed old reprobate of a magistrate and see what he'll do to you.' Magistrate (choking)—"Discharged!"

Doubtless it is only a question of time until some genius will invent a detachable knee cap for the dear creatures.

No Kick in Relativity

One nice thing about the theory of relativity Dr. Einstein explained to the New York reporters. Asked what he would advise the laymen to do about the theory, he replied, "Nothing at all; tell him not to worry; it won't hurt him." This is not only reassuring, but it is one of the most transparent statements so far made concerning the theory.

To our mind, in times like these, anything that we should do nothing about, that we should not worry over, and won't hurt us, is entitled to the highest place in human estimation. There are so many of the kind of things that the theory of relativity shines out like a beacon light in an unusually dark night. If Dr. Einstein could not find something else we do not have to do anything about, then there would be two of them, and relativity might not be so lonesome.

STUDIO NEWS AND GOSSIP

Will Rogers has another tramp role. Everyone who saw his "Jubilo" knows with what fidelity, humor and humaneness he depicts the American hobo and will want to see him as the tramp in "An Unwilling Hero."

In this film Rogers is first, last and always a real, honest specimen of the American tramp, his aversion to work equalled only by his aversion to being forced to remain in any one locality more than a few days at a time.

Queer how some big actors get small parts to play. William Russell, the Fox star, now appearing in "Children of Night," is generally regarded as a big actor—and he has here a big part. But in his company is a bigger actor than Russell, with a very small part.

He's a negro, too. He's at least two inches taller than the noted star, and four or five inches greater in girth. Some giant. A big actor.

California isn't given much to frosty nights, though on the other hand, it isn't a land of perpetual sunshine, as Will Rogers discovered recently to his great discomfort. The Goldwyn star, cast as tramp in the O. Henry picture, "An Unwilling Hero," decided to spend part of a night realistically bound hand and foot, just as the story had it. The night scene was filmed on one of those unusual California frost nights. And Mr. Rogers, as a tramp, didn't wear sufficient clothes.

The night scene, showing the burning of the barns on a southern plantation, were taken. The tramp hero lay squirming about on the ground, doing his best to keep warm. Finally, the rest of the company heard a sad voice penetrating the darkness. It was Will Rogers, extracting what humor he could from his situation. And the song he sang was:

"Massa's in the cold, cold ground!"

John Harron, younger brother of the late Robert Harron, is a member of the cast supporting Harry Carey in the Universal production of "Partners."

MRS. MABEL TIGHT AT DESK AGAIN

Mrs. Mabel Tight has returned to her office after a two weeks absence, during which she has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. W. C. Fraley and family of Lankershim at Ocean Park. She utilized her stay there to superintend the remodeling of some of her beach property which is looked after by her daughter Mrs. A. C. Anderson who has lived in Ocean Park for several years.

It's a long cry from a Wall Street millionaire's office to an underground dungeon in a den of criminals. But this is what takes place in "Children of Night," a Fox photoplay full of sensational incidents, in which William Russell plays the leading role.

FAMILY OF R. LEE COUTS KEPT BUSY

R. Lee Coutts and family of 230 West Colorado have had a busy week. R. Lee is an Elk and naturally interested in the big doings in Los Angeles. Their sister-in-law has had charge of the Poppy drive for the Lark Ellen home, and drafted Mrs. Coutts and her daughter as assistants in the good cause. The little girl dressed in a poppy costume, making a great success as a salesgirl.

Mr. Coutts is connected with the county sheriff's office and makes many sensational arrests. He was the officer who caught Bluebeard Watson seven or eight months ago, and he has recently run down Horace Box, the Long Beach fireman who, after an all-night grilling, acknowledged he was the abductor of Miss Lucile Umphreys on Signal Hill. Mrs. Coutts states Box was brought to Los Angeles because the authorities feared he might be lynched if allowed to remain in Long Beach.

AUTO DRIVER IS HIS BROTHER'S KEEPER

The supreme court appears to take the ground that the automobile driver is his brother's keeper. A decision to which Judge Lowe has called attention was recently handed down which declares it is the duty of the driver of a motor vehicle to anticipate the presence of another vehicle on the highway at the same time and place, the driver of the other vehicle having an equal right to the highway. He should therefore drive in such a manner as not to jeopardize the life of property of the possible other user of the highway.

Trade With Japan Grows

(By International News Service)
SAVANNAH, Ga., July 15.—A significant feature along the Savannah waterfront is the resumption of trade between Savannah and the Orient. Two years ago, after trade had been fairly well established between this port and the Far East, the cotton movement decreased almost to the vanishing point and shipping to the Far East became practically a zero. With the reopening of cotton selling exports have begun to increase, with Japan and other Oriental countries again looking to Savannah for cotton. Several ships have recently taken on cargoes here for ports in the Orient and four Japanese ships are due soon to take on cargoes, mainly of cotton.

Mary Miles Minter's recently completed Realar picture and which was filmed as "The Wall Flower," will go to the screen as "The Love Charm."

Dallas Fitzgerald, Alice Lake's director in several recent Metro pictures, began his professional career as an usher in a Louisville theater.

Says City Requires New Ordinances

vide the procedure whereby the city shall perform such public work for which the city may be the lowest bidder. A revolving fund may be created by bond issue for the purpose of financing the cost of such public work.

"In order to carry out the policy of the city with regard to the laying of water service mains whereby the payment of the cost thereof shall be made by assessment on the property served thereby, it would be quite desirable to have an ordinance drawn under the provisions of this section that would provide a simple procedure whereby the city could proceed to lay such water mains and advance the cost thereof during the period of construction out of funds provided therefor, thereby giving the property holders the advantage of having the work done directly by the city, thus eliminating a large portion of the overhead expense therefrom, involved in procedure under the provisions of the Vrooman act, also giving the property holders the advantage of having the work done on a cash basis. After the work is entirely completed, an equitable distribution of the actual costs would then be made to the various properties benefited. It would then be optional with the property holders to pay the cost of such improvement at the time or, to have bonds issued therefor as provided by law.

"A similar ordinance, or probably the same ordinance, might be so drawn whereby this procedure could be used also for street construction and possibly for new street construction that might be of a more or less temporary nature, such as oiling and graveling roadways where the property holders do not care to proceed with a more expensive pavement until later.

"One of the largest problems we have at the present time is that of reconstructing approximately 46 miles of light macadam and oiled gravel roadways. These roadways compose over one-half of our improved street system. They have served well for a period of from five to twelve years. All of them, however, are in a more or less unsatisfactory condition at the present time. The original cost of this pavement averaged less than 4 cents per square foot. The present condition of these roadways is not wholly on account of the traffic that they have been called upon to carry, but is largely on account of buckling and rolling, which seems to be a natural characteristic of roadways constructed as these were, where a large proportion of oil was used in their original construction.

"The city of Glendale has reconstructed portions of a number of these roadways, and from experience thus gained, we are thoroughly convinced that this entire road system can be reconstructed at a comparatively small cost to each individual property holder and that it is entirely possible for the residence section of Glendale to thus obtain at comparatively small cost a system of residence streets, that will compare favorably with any in Southern California. The cost to each individual property holder would be from 20 to 25 dollars for a 50-foot lot. The results obtained from such small expenditure on the part of the individual property holder would be well worth the outlay, as a direct benefit to his property, and would, if taken as a whole, constitute one of the most valuable improvements to the city that could be made at the present time. If there were only a few streets needing attention this way, it is possible that funds might be found to gradually put them in order; but with 45 miles or more of streets all demanding attention at once, the problems becomes financially too great to be handled out of the ordinary revenues of the city and we believe a policy of reconstructing these streets directly by the city for the property holder at actual cost, is justified under the circumstances.

"We understand that the city has this power under the charter.

"It is our understanding that owing to the change in the titles of officers, as provided for in charter, whose signatures are necessary to the legal procedure for issuance of bonds, it will be necessary for your council to adopt certain ordinances with regard to issuing bonds of municipal improvement districts Nos. 3 and 4. Accordingly, we would respectfully recommend that the city attorney be instructed to prepare for your consideration the following:

"First, Ordinance providing for disbursements from special deposit fund.

"Second, One or two ordinances as seems best, providing a procedure for doing public work as authorized under section 10 of article 6, of city charter.

"Third, Such ordinances as are necessary for the issuing of bonds of municipal improvement districts Nos. 3 and 4."

DOMESTIC SCIENCE

IN BREWER FAMILY

Mrs. Mary Jane Brewer of 129 South Kenwood has gone to Detroit to visit her mother and is not expected home until about the first of September. Her daughters Winifred and Elizabeth Brewer who have been taking Domestic Science in school are having a good chance to practice on father in their mother's absence. He is thriving under their ministrations, but the girls say they will be "awfully glad" to see mother again. Miss Winifred is looking for a visit from her friend, Mamie Lampe of Long Beach. She will probably arrive Friday afternoon.

NO CLEW TO THIEF IN GELMOR ROBBERY

No clew has been reported that is likely to lead to the arrest of the thieves who looted the store of A. Gelmor, ladies' tailor, at 138 South Brand, which was entered some time between midnight and dawn Wednesday morning. An inventory of the stock missing includes 60 bolts of woolen suiting, $200 worth of colored silk linings, a lady's suit of dark blue tricotine, a navy blue and chinchilla coat and two men's suits. Mr. Gelmor was seriously injured in an automobile accident and an effort had been made to secure a man to run the shop in his absence. It is therefore suspected that some of the applicants for the position were thieves in disguise who took advantage of the opportunity to rob the store, effecting an entrance through a rear window.

THEATRES

Palace Grand

Thomas Meighan will be shown again today starring in "White and Unmarried" at Manager Jensen's Palace Grand Theatre. The picture took well last night and capacity houses are expected at the various performances today.

Meighan appears as a crook who reforms when his uncle leaves him half a million dollars and goes to Europe to kill time.

He has a romance and incidentally is involved in some desperate encounters with Apaches in Paris. It is the Paris of the novelists that is shown. The underground Paris—the Paris of the dance halls, the Apaches, the picturesque and hectic. Billy Kane develops into a man of rare prowess and rescues several damsels in distress.

It is a vivid tale with plenty of excitement and red-blood action. Tom Forman directed and Will M. Ritchey adapted John D. Swain's story. Jacqueline Logan is leading woman and Grace Darmond has an important role. Walter Long is cast as a particularly ferocious Apache. The support is excellent.

Glendale Theatre

Princess Jones did not mean to pose as a princess of the blood. She was a normal and healthy minded American girl in humble circumstances, but thought she should do something to live up to the romantic name her mother had given her. She did not dream what amazing adventures she was to have.

The story is told in "Princess Jones," by Joseph Franklin Poland, a Vitagraph production starring Alice Calhoun. It will be shown today at the Glendale Theatre.

Alice Calhoun is Vitagraph's youngest star in point of years and experience on the screen. She is eighteen years old, and her first appearance on the screen, in a small part in an O. Henery classic, was made only a little over two years ago. "Princess Jones" provides an admirable vehicle for her appearance as a star.

SUSPENDED FINE FOR MR. BULLARD

The decision of Judge Lowe in the case against H. W. Bullard, found guilty of violation of Section 16 of the California Vehicle Act, in driving a motor vehicle with an open muffler, was rendered this morning. A fine of $5 was imposed with suspended sentence in consideration of the fact that Mr. Bullard is sincerely anxious now to comply with the law and has expended about $15 to have his car put in such shape that he will not offend again. The judge holds that the prime intent of the law is to regulate the operation of automobiles and protect the public rather than to harass offenders.

Follow the leaders of the crowd on all occasions when it is time to eat and you will find them coming here where abundant food of highest quality awaits your order.

Watch the summer porches. Happy women are there in the cool of the morning or the shade of the afternoon or out on the lawn. Faces bright, carefree—household duties forgotten. They're customers of ours.

On the same street, maybe, you see, also, closed doors, vacant porches and, back in the kitchen, one who has not yet known the JOY OF LAUNDRY SERVICE. She is not a customer of ours. But we want her.
